Teen Opportunities

Teen volunteers play an important role in the Youth Services Department at the La Crosse Public Library. See how you can make a difference...

Summer Library Program

Teen volunteers assist with a variety of activities from program sign-up to helping with special events.

Informational/registration meetings will be held in May .

Teen Advisory Council

The Teen Advisory Council is made up of teens from local middle and high schools who advise the Youth Services staff in developing the young adult collection, planning special events and making the library a friendly place for young adults.

Email our Teen Librarian Linda Jerome, ljerome@lacrosselibrary.org or call (608) 789-7157 to learn more.
